The Acts of the Apostles

“To the end of the earth”

Acts 1:8

The Gospel Goes to Europe

Acts 16:6–16

Acts 16:6, “Now when they had gone through Phrygia and the region of Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the word in Asia.

Acts 16:7, “After they had come to Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit did not permit them.”

A landscape of rocky hills with sparse green vegetation under a blue sky with light clouds. The foreground is dominated by large, grey, weathered rock formations. The middle ground shows a mix of green bushes and small trees growing on the rocky slopes. The background features a clear blue sky with wispy white clouds.

Acts 16:8, “So passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas.

Acts 16:9, “And a vision appeared to Paul in the night. A man of Macedonia stood and pleaded with him, saying, ‘Come over to Macedonia and help us.’ ”

Acts 16:10, “Now after he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to them.”

2 Cor. 2:12, “Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ’s gospel, and a door was opened to me by the Lord,

2 Cor. 2:13, “I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I departed for Macedonia.”

Acts 16:11, “Therefore, sailing from Troas, we ran a straight course to Samothrace, and the next day came to Neapolis,”

A scenic view of a stone-paved path leading down a hillside. The path is made of irregular, light-colored stones and is flanked by green grass and some dry brush. In the background, a coastal town with red-roofed buildings is visible, situated on a hillside overlooking the sea. The sky is blue with some light clouds. A utility pole with power lines is visible in the distance.

Acts 16:12, “and from there to Philippi, which is the foremost city of that part of Macedonia, a colony. And we were staying in that city for some days.”

Acts 16:12, “and from there to Philippi, which is the foremost city of that part of Macedonia, a colony. And we were staying in that city for some days.”

Acts 16:13, “And on the Sabbath day we went out of the city to the riverside, where prayer was customarily made; and we sat down and spoke to the women who met there.”

Acts 16:14, “Now a certain woman named Lydia heard us. She was a seller of purple from the city of Thyatira, who worshiped God. The Lord opened her heart to heed the things spoken by Paul.”

A scenic view of a river flowing through a wooded area. In the foreground, several large, grey, rectangular concrete blocks are arranged in a line, partially submerged in the water. The river flows from the left towards the right, with some white water visible. The banks are covered with dry grass and some green plants. In the background, there are several trees with bare branches, suggesting a late autumn or winter setting. The sky is a pale blue. The text is overlaid in the center of the image.

Acts 16:15, “And when she and her household were baptized, she begged us, saying, ‘If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay.’ So she persuaded us.”

Acts 16:16, “Now it happened, as we went to prayer, that a certain slave girl possessed with a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much profit by fortunetelling.”
