1 Pet. 3:15, “But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear;

1 Pet. 3:16, “having a good conscience, that when they defame you as evildoers, those who revile your good conduct in Christ may be ashamed.”

“If we defend the fortress at every point, except where it is being attacked, we will lose the battle.”

~Martin Luther

*"Unless I am convinced
by proofs from Scriptures or by plain and clear
reasons and arguments,
I can and will not retract,
for it is neither safe nor wise to do anything against conscience. Here I stand.
I can do no other. God help me. Amen!"*

Martin Luther (1483-1547)

Lam. 3:20, “My soul still remembers [the horrors of the destruction of Jerusalem]

And sinks within me.

Lam. 3:21, “This I recall to my mind,
Therefore I have hope.

Lam. 3:22, “Through the LORD’S mercies we are not consumed,
Because His compassions fail not.

Lam. 3:23, “They are new every morning; Great is Your faithfulness.”

“ Providence has given to our people the choice of their rulers, and it is the duty as well as the privilege and interest of our Christian nation, to select and prefer Christians for their rulers.”

~John Jay (1745–1829),
a president of the Continental Congress, first Chief Justice,

The following is an excerpt from Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas' Wriston Lecture to the Manhattan Institute in 2008:

“Let me put it this way; there are really only two ways to interpret the Constitution – try to discern as best we can what the framers intended or make it up. No matter how ingenious, imaginative or artfully put, unless interpretive methodologies are tied to the original intent of the framers, they have no more basis in the Constitution than the latest football scores.”

“To be sure, even the most conscientious effort to adhere to the original intent of the framers of our Constitution is flawed, as all methodologies and human institutions are; but at least originalism has the advantage of being legitimate and, I might add, impartial.”

“There is no dissonance in these declarations. There is a universal language pervading them all, having one meaning; they affirm and reaffirm that this is a religious nation, this is a Christian nation.”

~U.S. Supreme Court, 1892

“In my view, the Christian religion is the most important and one of the first things in which all children, under a free government ought to be instructed ... No truth is more evident to my mind than that the Christian religion must be the basis of any government intended to secure the rights and privileges of a free people.”

~Preface

“the legal union of a man and woman for life”... which served the purposes of “preventing the promiscuous intercourse of the sexes, ... promoting domestic felicity, and ... securing the maintenance and education of children” (1828).

“Our citizens should early understand that the genuine source of correct republican principles is the Bible particularly the New Testament or the Christian religion.”

~Noah Webster
(1758–1843)
