

Rev. 13:1, "And I stood on the sand of the sea. Then I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns were ten diadems, and on his heads were blasphemous names.

13:2, "And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. And the dragon gave him his power and his throne and great authority."

A STUDY IN BIBLICAL ESCHATOLOGY

J. Dwight Pentecost

“The key to understanding Daniel 7–12 of Daniel’s prophecy is to understand that Daniel is focusing his attention on this one great ruler and his kingdom which will arise in the end time.”

Are the 10 Horns and Little Horn Past or Future?

Four Reasons to Take This as Future:

1. No historical form of the Roman Empire existed in a 10-king or kingdom form.
2. Little horn and uprooting of 3 horns
3. The scene of final judgment in 7:9–12.
4. The final kingdom is totally destroyed and replaced by Christ's kingdom.

The 4 Stages of the Roman Empire

Past Stages

1. The United Stage —The Roman Empire
2. The Two-Division Stage (East–West)

Future Stages

3. The Ten-King Stage
4. The Antichrist/World Government Stage

“One would have to be totally ignorant of developments within the world of our day not to admit that, through the efforts of the European Union, ‘Humpty-Dumpty’ is finally being put back together again. This is occurring, like all of the other needed developments of prophecy, at just the right time to be in place for the coming tribulation period.” (Thomas Ice and Timothy Demy)

The Judgment of the Ancient of Days

Daniel 7:9–12

“I kept looking until thrones were set up, and the Ancient of Days took His seat; His vesture was like white snow, and the hair of His head like pure wool.” (7:9a)

“His throne was ablaze with flames, its wheels were a burning fire, a river of fire was flowing out from before Him,” (7:9c–10a)

“His throne was ablaze with flames, its wheels were a burning fire, a river of fire was flowing out from before Him,” (7:9c–10a)

Psa. 104:4, “He makes the winds His messengers [lit. angels], flaming fire His ministers.”

“His throne was ablaze with flames, its wheels were a burning fire, a river of fire was flowing out from before Him,” (7:9c–10a)

Ezekiel 1:7, “Their legs were straight and their feet were like a calf’s hoof, and they gleamed like burnished bronze.”

“And myriads upon myriads were standing before Him” (7:10)

“the
court sat, and
the books
were opened.”
(7:10d)

Daniel 12:1, “everyone who is found written in the book, will be rescued.”

“vesture like white snow” – purity

“hair like pure wool” – wisdom and age

“His throne” – majesty and authority

“was ablaze with flames, its wheels were a burning fire, and coming out from before Him” – judgment

Psalm 97:3, “Fire goes before Him and burns up His adversaries round about”

Rev. 1:12, “Then I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And having turned I saw seven golden lampstands,

Rev. 1:13, “and in the midst of the seven lampstands One like the Son of Man, clothed with a garment down to the feet and girded about the chest with a golden band.”

Rev. 1:14, “His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and His eyes like a flame of fire; Rev. 1:15, “His feet were like fine brass, as if refined in a furnace, and His voice as the sound of many waters; Rev. 1:16, “He had in His right hand seven stars, out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword, and His countenance was like the sun shining in its strength.”

“Then I kept looking because of the sound of the boastful words which the horn was speaking; I kept looking until the beast was slain, and its body was destroyed and given to the burning fire. As for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away, but an extension of life was granted to them for an appointed period of time.” (7:11–12)

“And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth
and their armies,
assembled to make war against Him who sat upon the horse, and
against His army.”
(Rev. 19:19)

“And the beast was seized, and with him the false prophet who performed the signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image; these two were thrown alive into the lake of fire which burns with brimstone.”
(Rev. 19:20)

Daniel 7:13–14

“I kept looking in the night visions, and behold, with the clouds of heaven one like a Son of Man was coming, and He came up to the Ancient of Days and was presented before Him, and to Him was given dominion, glory and a kingdom, that all the people, nations, and men of every language might serve Him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion which will not pass away; and His kingdom is one which will not be destroyed.”

The Son of Man

This title occurs 81 times in the Gospels. It's used by Jesus every time except John 12:34.

Why did Jesus use this title for Himself more than any other? Because it's ambiguous. It reveals and conceals.

It is an idiom asserting humanity, "man"
(Ps. 8:4; Ezekiel)

Or, it is a title for the Messiah, the Son of Man in Daniel 7:13 who comes to rule over the earth.

Authority – “But in order that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins . . .” (Mark 2:10)

Exaltation – “But Jesus kept silent, and the high priest said to Him, ‘I adjure You by the living God, that You tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God.’ Jesus said to them, ‘You have said it yourself; nevertheless I tell you, hereafter you shall see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power and coming on the clouds of heaven.’ Then the high priest tore his robes, saying, ‘He has blasphemed! What further need do we have of witnesses? Behold, you have now heard the blasphemy.’” (Matt. 26:63–65)
